

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

THE UNDERSIGNED:

TomTom Sales BV Japan Branch (official registered name: トムトム・セールス・ビーブイ), having its registered office and principal place of business in Tokyo, Japan (TomTom Sales B.V. 26F, Marunouchi Eiraku building xLINK 1-4-1 Marunouchi Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, 100-0005), hereinafter referred to as “the Employer” and represented with regard to this employment agreement (hereinafter “the Agreement”) by Arne Christian van der Tang acting in his capacity of position CHRO.

and

Qianqian Hu, residing in Tokyo, hereinafter referred to as “the Employee”

HAVE AGREED ON THE FOLLOWING:

1 Position and Location

- 1.1 The Employee is employed by the Employer in the position of Technical Success Manager, in the CX-Delivery Management organisational unit. The Employee's position set forth in this paragraph may be changed by the Employer.
- 1.2 The Employee will devote his/her best efforts, attention and abilities to fulfilling his/her tasks and duties in accordance with the directions, which may be given by the Employer. The Employee will also undertake other work in addition to his/her job, if the Employer may reasonably require this.
- 1.3 As a starting point, work activities are performed from the office location of the Employer. The work location of the Employee is the office of the Employer in Tokyo. The Employer offers the Employee a hybrid working solution called the Employer's W@TT (Working@TomTom) program.
- 1.4 The Employee's work location set forth in 1.3 may be changed by the Employer.
- 1.5 Please note that the Employee can only work in the country of his/her employment, business travel excluded, unless agreed otherwise with the Employer.
- 1.6 All the expected behaviour around activity-based working and the W@TT is reflected in the Employer's W@TT portal. This portal includes, but is not limited to, information on activity-based working, how to establish a safe home office, guidelines for productivity and instructions on security.
- 1.7 With signing this document, the Employee agrees to adhere to the information as presented on the Employer's W@TT portal. The Employer reserves the right to make unilateral changes to the content of the W@TT portal insofar needed.

- 1.8 In addition, the Employee undertakes to perform his/her tasks at another place than where the work is usually performed and/or at other times than usual, unless this cannot be required of the Employee on account of special circumstances.

2 Appointment, term and notice

- 2.1 The Employee shall be employed with effect from September 1st, 2026. This Agreement has been entered into for an indefinite period of time.
- 2.2 Thirty day-notice of termination of the Agreement shall be given by both parties in writing. If the Employer pays thirty day salary in lieu of notice, notice period may not be given. The Employer further refers to the TomTom Japan Working Regulation.

3 Trial period

A trial period of 6 months will be applicable during which either party has the right to terminate this Agreement with immediate effect. The Employer refers to the TomTom Japan Working Regulation.

4 Salary

- 4.1 The gross annual salary of the Employee amounts to ¥ 10,765,440 per year - based on fulltime employment, being 40 hours a week.
- 4.2 The gross monthly salary of the Employee, ¥ 897,120 and based on 40 working hours per week, will be paid 12 times per year in arrears on or around the 24th of the month.

5 Working time

The Employee will be employed on a full-time basis, being 8 hours per day, 40 hours a week, over five working days. The Employer refers to the TomTom Japan Working Regulation. The Employee is expected to perform his/her work to promote the interests of the Employer in a proper and professional manner.

6 Bonus

- 6.1 The Employee will be eligible for a performance related bonus, depending on business and personal performance and based upon set targets. The current bonus percentage (of the gross annual salary) belonging to the Employee's position is 7.5%.
- 6.2 Any payment of bonus is subject to strict terms & conditions, as stated in the applicable bonus scheme. A copy of the current bonus scheme is attached to this Agreement. The awarding (or not) of a performance related bonus and the amount will at all times be subject to the exclusive judgment of the management of the Employer. The entitlement to any bonus in one year does not create any entitlement to a bonus in the following year.

7 Benefits

- 7.1 The Employee is entitled to benefits corresponding to his grade or position. These benefits may be subject to changes if legislation and/or company policy require so. The Employer further refers to the Company Members Salary Regulation.
- 7.2 All other benefits, which the Employee may receive from the Employer, cannot under any circumstances be considered as a vested right for the Employee and will not be part of his/her salary. They will always keep their gratuitous character and can be revoked or unilaterally changed by the Employer at any time. Even if fringe benefits would be granted for several years, it is agreed that this will not constitute a custom and that the Employee will not be entitled to such benefits in the future.

8 W@TT benefits

- 8.1 The Employee is entitled to a one-time home office set-up budget of ¥ 74,200.00 to establish a safe, secure and productive home office.
- 8.2 The Employee is entitled to a monthly work from home allowance of ¥ 6,430.00 to support him/her in creating a safe and secure working environment and contribute to his/her monthly utilities that may increase as a result of a frequent use of the home office.
- 8.3 Specific guidelines per country are provided on the W@TT portal, with instructions on what elements may be expensed in a tax favourable way.
- 8.4 The Employee is not allowed to separately and/or in addition expense any items that fall under the scope of his/her one-time home office set-up budget or monthly allowance, e.g. expensing home office furniture, internet or other utilities, either via Concur or otherwise.
- 8.5 The Employee is aware that his/her monthly compensation is granted based on the assumption that he/she will be working from home on a regular basis in accordance with the W@TT principles. The Employer reserves the right to stop this allowance if this assumption is no longer correct or in case of any other substantial organizational or financial reason, in which case the Employer will apply a one month notice period.
- 8.6 If the Employee is unable to perform his/her duties for a period longer than 1 month (uninterrupted) for whatever reason, his/her monthly allowance will be stopped as per the first day of the month following his/her first day of absence.
- 8.7 The Employer reserves the right to reclaim 75% of the one-time home office set-up budget if the Employee hands in his/her notice of resignation, or he/she is dismissed with cause within 3 months after he/she has received the amount, and 50% if this happens between 3 and 6 months.
- 8.8 Any office/commuting related benefits, if these are agreed upon, will be pro-rated based on the Employee's office attendance. In order to calculate your allowances correctly, his/her attendance at the TomTom office may need to be tracked. By signing this document, the Employee agrees to mentioned attendance tracking. Mentioned individual attendance data will not be used for other purposes, such as performance or engagement tracking.

9 Expenses

Expenses of the Employee will be reimbursed according to the expenses policy, made available through the intranet. The Employer further refers to the TomTom Japan Working Regulation and the Company Members Salary Regulation.

10 Holidays

- 10.1 In addition to the Japanese Public holidays, the Employee is entitled to the number of paid holidays per calendar year as mentioned in the Labour Standard Law based on a full-time employment. If the Employee is employed on a part-time basis, holidays will be pro-rated. The Employer further refers to the TomTom Japan Working Regulation.
- 10.2 The Employee must always consult with his/her manager before booking any holidays. The Employer's interests need to be taken into account at all times before any request can be approved or denied.

11 Illness

- 11.1 In the event of illness, injury or any other incapacity of the Employee, he/she must personally contact his/her manager and the Human Resources Department of the Employer and do this before 9.00 a.m. on the first day of absence. The Employee needs to state where he/she can be reached during the absence, by providing for an address and a telephone number.
- 11.2 In case of illness the Employee will observe the applicable rules and obligations regarding sick leave. These rules and obligations regarding sick leave are made available through the intranet. The Employer further refers to the TomTom Japan Working Regulation. In case of discrepancies, the TomTom Japan Working Regulation prevail.

12 Business Equipment

- 12.1 Depending on the position of the Employee, the Employer can provide the Employee with business equipment, which is and will remain the Employer's property. The Employee will use such equipment in good faith, in such manner as may be expected from a good employee, in accordance with the policies made available through the intranet and only for business purposes.
- 12.2 The Employee will return the equipment to the Employer at first request in the event the Employee is not able for whatever reason to fulfil his/her duties for a period exceeding one month, without the obligation of the Employer to pay any compensation in relation thereto.

13 Documents and property of the Employer

Upon termination of this Agreement or in the situation that the Employee no longer carries out activities for the Employer, irrespective of the way and the reason, the Employee must hand over to the Employer, by return immediately, in good condition as reasonably can be expected, all items belonging to it and/or its affiliated companies, including –but not exclusively– mobile phone, laptop computer and electronic and paper documents, customer lists and books, without retaining copies, all this in the broadest possible sense.

14 Confidentiality

- 14.1 Except for the proper and agreed performance of his/her services to the Employer, this at the Employer's sole discretion, the Employee shall not during the term of this Agreement nor at any time thereafter – irrespective of the way in which and reasons for which the Agreement has come to an end – directly or indirectly disclose to any third party, including via professional and/or social networking sites, any confidential data and/or information concerning any matter relating to the Employer, its business, its property, its affiliated companies, its employees, its clients and/or other relations, which the Employee has become aware of in the scope of his/her work for the Employer, and is aware or should be aware of the confidential nature thereof, all this in the broadest possible sense.

15 Other engagements

During this term of the Agreement, the Employee shall not be directly or indirectly, paid or unpaid, engaged in any other business, trade or occupation whatsoever, unless this is done with the prior written consent of the Employer. In addition, the Employee shall not accept any money or other forms of remuneration from third parties in connection with his/her work for the Employer and/or its affiliated companies. The Employer further refers to the TomTom Japan Working Regulation.

16 Intellectual Property

- 16.1 The Employer shall own all intellectual property rights created by the Employee that relate to the Employer's business or were created in the course of the Employee's duties during the period of employment. Any intellectual property rights or related rights that have arisen or may arise during or at the time of the execution of this Agreement shall be transferred automatically and exclusively to the Employer upon their existence or, in case of rights that already exist, as soon as this Agreement comes into force.
- 16.2 The Employee undertakes to provide any assistance and cooperation necessary to transfer any such intellectual property - or related rights to the Employer, in return for compensation already provided for pursuant to article "Salary and holiday allowance" of this agreement, without prejudice to mandatory legislative provisions.
- 16.3 In the event that, for any reason, it is not possible to transfer such intellectual property - or related right(s) to the Employer, the Employee hereby grants the Employer a worldwide, perpetual, exclusive and irrevocable licence to exploit these intellectual property right(s) or related right(s), including the right to maintain and enforce intellectual property rights or related rights in and outside court and to encumber the intellectual property rights or related rights and to grant sub-licenses, in return for compensation (including signing fee, licensing fee and royalties) already provided for pursuant to article "Salary and holiday allowance" of this agreement, without prejudice to mandatory legislative provisions. The Employee undertakes to provide to the Employer any assistance and cooperation necessary to obtain said licenses.
- 16.4 The Employee waives his/her rights to exercise his/her moral rights so far as alterations to the work that is subject to any intellectual property right or its title are concerned. The Employee authorises the Employer to exploit the work that is subject to any intellectual property right, without mentioning the name or other indication of the Employee.

17 Penalty clause

- 17.1 In the event the Employee breaches any of the provisions, set forth in the articles (if applicable): Business Equipment, Documents and Property of the Employer, Non-competition, Non-solicitation, Non-poaching, Confidentiality, Other engagements and Intellectual Property of this Agreement, the Employee shall immediately and without further notice of default or judicial intervention or the obligation of the Employer to prove damage, forfeit to the Employer an immediately payable penalty in the amount of one gross monthly salary, for each such breach, to be increased by ¥ 67,565 for each day on which such violation continues and notwithstanding instead of the previous the right of the Employer to be fully indemnified by the Employee in respect of any and all damage, suffered as a result thereof.. In case of a breach of the provision on Non-competition, Non-solicitation and/or Non-poaching, the Employer can claim both penalties and damages.

17.2 Payment of the penalty referred to in the previous paragraph shall not discharge the Employee of the obligations as contained in the articles as mentioned therein.

17.3 In the event of a breach by the Employee of any other stipulation of this Agreement the Employer shall be entitled, without notice of default being required, to claim performance of the Agreement as well as full compensation for damage instead.

18 Applicable schemes and policies

18.1 All current and/or future schemes and policies of Employer that regulate, amongst others, rules of order as well as employment conditions, for instance but not limited to the TomTom Japan Working Regulation, Regulation for Child Care/Nursing Care Leave and Company Members Salary Regulation, are part of this Agreement and the Employee undertakes to comply with such schemes and policies.

18.2 By signing this Agreement the Employee declares to have received or consulted all applicable schemes and policies of the Employer, hardcopy or made available through the intranet, to have taken due note of them, to agree to the contents thereof as well as to any possible future changes and supplements.

18.3 In case of discrepancies between this Agreement and mentioned schemes and policies, this Agreement prevails.

19 General

19.1 The Employee is aware and agrees that he/she may not undertake legal transactions with third parties on behalf of the Employer, unless he/she has the written permission of the Employer.

19.2 The Employer has the right to unilaterally make alterations to the position of the Employee and/or to change or supplement the agreed employment conditions in case the weighty interest of the Employer so requires. The interests of the Employer and the interests of the Employee will be balanced against each other.

19.3 The Employee herewith gives the Employer permission to collect, retain and process personal information about the Employee. Personal information will be held and processed in accordance with the data protection principles and will be used for the administration and management of the employment and the Employer may only disclose such information to third parties and transfer it to other countries if, in its opinion, this is necessary for the execution of the employment agreement or the proper conduct of its businesses.

- 19.4 In the event that any stipulation of this Agreement should be declared non-binding by the Court, the parties will replace it with another, legally valid stipulation, that corresponds as much as possible to the stipulation that was declared non-binding. The fact that any stipulation of this Agreement may be non-binding shall not affect the legal validity of the other stipulations.
- 19.5 In the event that the Tax Authority decides at any time that wage tax is payable on any allowances referred to under this Agreement, these withholdings shall be payable by the Employee.
- 19.6 This Agreement will be interpreted in accordance with and shall be governed by the law of Japan.

20 Employment check

- 20.1 This Agreement is concluded subject to a positive outcome with regard to a pre-employment check. The Employee is obliged:
- To hand over to the Employer copies or scans of the qualification certificates;
 - To hand over to the Employer copies of current passport or valid identification document. If the Employee holds a passport of any country other than Japan, the Employer will also need to see proof of right of residence and confirmation that the Employee is able to take up full-time employment in Japan.
- 20.2 By signing this Agreement the Employee declares to comply with all legal obligations that apply to foreign employees who fulfil employment in Japan. For instance, if a residence and/or work permit will be necessary the Employee will make sure that these permits will be received in time. If the Employee, for whatever reason, does not comply with a legal obligation and is therefore not able to work for the Employer in Japan, this will be reason for the Employer to suspend the Employee without entitlement to his/her salary and/or to terminate the employment agreement of the Employee with immediate effect or otherwise.
- 20.3 By signing this agreement the Employee declares that he/she is, with respect to his/her future position with the Employer, not restricted by any obligation, for example a non-competition or client clause whatsoever in an employment agreement or other document with a former or current employer, third company or whatsoever.
